New Mexico State Police received an anonymous tip as to the whereabouts of Ramon Lorenzo, who had escaped from the Cibola County Detention Center on the evening of June 13.

Lorenzo was taken into custody in the Valencia Village area of Grants, NM without incident at about 6:30 pm Monday.

He was remanded to the custody of the New Mexico Department of Corrections and will be booked into their Main Facility, maximum security level, in Santa Fe, NM.

Multiple subjects located with Mr. Lorenzo were subsequently charged with Harboring/Aiding a Felon.

This case is still under investigation, there is no additional information available.
