CELEBRATING its 95th birthday, the Pueblo of Acoma's Summer Nightly Indian Dances returns to the Acoma Pueblo grounds, a historic site in the heart of the desert. The event, which has been a tradition for over a century, is a celebration of the Pueblo's rich cultural heritage. The dances are performed by the Pueblo's dancers, who are dressed in traditional attire. The event is open to the public and is a great opportunity to learn more about the Pueblo's history and culture.
