The Gallup baseball traveling team 6-4-3 Militia, went to Las Cruces on July 3, for competition games. They began pool play July 4 and 5 and won third place in the Silver Division of the Global World Series out of 21 teams after playing a total of nine games in four days.

This is the second ring they have received as a team. They also took second place in the Spring League in the St. Patrick's Tournament in Albuquerque.

The team's name, 6-4-3, means a double play. Coach Tommy Gonzales explains that he used
