

Five local deaths during Thanksgiving holiday

Written by Staff Reports

Friday, 30 November 2018 08:16

One possible exposure death

The Gallup Police Department reported five deaths occurring over the Thanksgiving holidays, four of them resulting from medical causes.

One death was possibly the result of exposure, according to police. The victim was found on Nov. 22 behind Papa John's Pizza, 2102 E. Hwy 66, and identified as Rachel Manygoats, 47.

The Gallup Police Department has also reported the identity of the body found behind the Silver Stallion two weeks ago. The cause of death for David Livingston, 52, of Churchrock has also been listed as possibly the result of exposure.