

Sobriety checkpoints held across state

Written by Staff Reports

Friday, 30 November 2018 08:18

NMSP TO HEIGHTEN patrols throughout December

New Mexico State Police will conduct sobriety checkpoints, saturation patrols and registration, insurance and driver's license checkpoints in all state counties during the month of December.

"We are bringing awareness to these events in an effort to reduce alcohol related fatalities through continued media attention and intensive advertising," a Nov. 27 press release states. "These checkpoints are helping to change society's attitude about drinking and driving."