

Threats made against local schools

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 17 May 2019 03:04

The Gallup Police reported receiving an emergency call from metro dispatch about a person who wanted to report an online employee posting, that included a threat to shoot up Gallup High School. The posting was on May 5. The call came in at 1:13 pm, May 6. The Gallup McKinley schools have been notified and safety precautions have been put in place. The FBI has also been notified. Police and detectives are actively investigating this incident.