

$5,000 reward for information

Written by gallupsun
Thursday, 11 March 2021 10:29

---

The FBI is offering a $5,000 reward for information leading to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the individual(s) responsible for the death of Isiah Terrell Billy.

On Oct. 5, Billy was found dead in a wash east of the Sinclair gas station near mile marker 23 on U.S. Highway 64, in Shiprock, New Mexico.

The cause of death is pending but considered suspicious.

Billy, who was 30 at the time, lived in Shiprock, on the Navajo Nation.

The FBI and Navajo Nation Division of Public Safety are investigating the case.

Anyone with information is asked to call th e FBI at (505) 889-1300 or go online at tips.fbi.gov .