

Gallup police arrest massage parlor operator

Written by gallupsun
Thursday, 26 August 2021 16:50

Last Week, Arizona Homeland Security contacted the Gallup Police Department in reference to their agency obtaining an arrest warrant for Binghua Yang of Gallup.

Yang, 59, the operator of Chinese Young Massage at 2712 West Hwy. 66 in Gallup, was was arrested without incident on charges of conspiracy, illegal control of an enterprise, money laundering in the second degree, and operating or maintaining a house of prostitution.

GPD Capt. Erin Toadlena-Pablo requested that media questions about the case be directed towards Arizona Homeland Security.

This is a developing story and will be updated as more details become available.

