Aggravated DWI (Third)

Gallup Police met a Church Rock woman, Tishanna Judge, 31, who parked her vehicle in the middle of the road and eventually arrested and charged her with her third DWI.

Patrolman Kyle Delgai was dispatched to Casamera Apartments at 350 Basilio Dr., where he saw a white GMC Sierra parked at the scene. He met the driver, Judge, and began questioning her.

Judge reportedly did not respond to commands to lower the window at first. When she did open the window, Judge displayed signs of intoxication including bloodshot eyes, slurred speech, and trouble talking to Delgai, who also noted a strong smell of alcohol coming from inside the vehicle.

Delgai questioned Judge further, who reportedly stated she was not the driver and did not carry any of the requested documentation. Judge also refused to take the Standard Field Sobriety Tests and was placed under arrest. She also refused to give a breath sample.

Judge was taken to McKinley County Adult Detention Center and booked for aggravated DWI (third), parking in prohibited spaces, driving on side of roadway, and having no license. Her pretrial hearing is set for March 12.
