

You may notice everything is a little out of whack. It's not as if everything is turned around. You just feel off kilter like you walk into a house and suddenly get vertigo. It's not you. The floor is crooked. That's because the moon is void of course on July 14. Energies will work against you. Madame G recommends that you take a moment to breathe and try again later. You're fine.

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You're on a new and exciting path. Where will you go? What will you do? The choice is yours and the options are limitless. The only fear to fear is fear itself. Don't lock yourself away in a little box. Become more than you could ever have imagined and then become more than that. Break your own expectations of yourself. You can do this. Go!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Your walk is full of grace and composure. You can do anything you set your mind to do. It's on you to look towards the sun and decide which direction to follow. Will you take the road most followed or will you try out a new way? Neither choice is wrong. You have the options and you may decide whatever you want. Madame G suggests you take some time to think and reflect.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Your heart's in the right place. But, only you know if this is the life you want to lead. It may seem like you're fighting an uphill battle. It may well be worth it and maybe it's not. That decision is on you. Instead of trying to figure out the world's problems on your own and in one sitting go ahead and breathe. You have options. You may take time to think. Relax.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

In time your path will be clear. It takes time to break through the barriers that you've created. You know what you think you want, but maybe you don't really understand it. In order to have the life you've always wanted, you must become the person who lives that life. You must let go of what you think is the truth so that you may see what truly is. Good luck!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Your opportunities are boundless. You may feel slightly defeated or disturbed by recent events. There could be events in your life that seem annoying or disturbing. But, they're actually there to show you a new reality. Perhaps what you think must always be doesn't really need to be. You're committed to one path, but it may not be right. Consider letting go of these. Be free.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

You have your eye on the prize: freedom. What's the cost? What are you willing to sacrifice? You have options and there are always ways to live differently. Maybe what you need is not what you think you need. In fact, maybe the cost of freedom is too high. Maybe the cost of pure freedom is not freedom at all. Stop and reflect before you take action. Think carefully.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

You're open in a world of fascinating heartache and beauty. You may not always see what's coming at you, but there will inevitably be something. What do you consider sacred? What's you're defining purpose? Take time to think about this before you take the next step. Instead of taking the next best option or doing something that's just good—consider what's best for you.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

You don't know everything. That's a very good thing. You may not always have the answers and you might fail, but so long as it's forward—you're good. Be flexible. Your life can be better than you could have ever imagined. It may not always be the little details like the car you drive, house you live in, or cash in the bank—it's in the really important ways like love and family.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You've made a few good and bad decisions. Now you must choose what way to move forward with purpose and decision. It's on you to live the life you've always wanted. Only you can define that. Only you know what you're missing out on. You have to believe enough in yourself to take that dream and live it out to the fullest. Your heart is an open doorway—step through it.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Peace be with you. You have the opportunity to take what scares you and transform it into something beautiful and strong. It's always on us to live and act in the ways that are meaningful and good. Stop acting as if the world revolves around you. Take action and others will respond. Show compassion and kindness and the rest will follow. You're heading in the right direction.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You need a little R&R. This is the time for rest and relaxation. You may need to change your mind about a few things, but you'll find the answers you've always needed. In your heart, the world is open. In your mind, the world is closed. You must pick one because you will deprive yourself of a full life without some balance and happiness. Trust your gut. You can do this.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Madame G guide to the stars WEEK OF JULY 14

You're on the precipice of a new journey. Instead of living on the edge chose a loftier horizon. You don't need to panic at every thought or action. Change your inner words and the rest will follow. Change your life and the world will take notice. Stop placing yourself in a limited box. You're capable of more than you think. You're incredibly strong. Go you.
