Welcome New Moon! On Aug. 5, you'll notice a shifting down with a spontaneous jump forward. As we're deep into the warmth of Leo's Sun, bask in the fire sign's strengths. Take pride in yourself. Develop kindness towards yourself and excessive generosity towards others. Remember that charity begins at home. Madame G suggests you get out there and smile!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You've got this! Your fellow fire sign is leading the way this month and you may graciously take heart and support. Others may offer you a helping hand and it's a beautiful thing. You may long for days of peace—they'll come. Don't let a little work or spit and polish get you down. You can take on the world with your friends. Choose you and remember kindness is always good.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

So, you're heading out for the next big thing? Don't rush. Take a look in the mirror and remember that you're important and worth it too. Sometimes it may feel as if the weight of the world is on your shoulders—maybe it is—you're still entitled to have a little fun. Your life is meaningful and you impact the lives of others daily. Don't let a little failure get you down.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Your heart is open and free. Your air like qualities may feel the pull of fire, but we're all closely connected. You get this and better than most. You understand that out there we're all trying to live our lives well. Enjoy your down time. This New Moon is a chance to practice self-love. Turn that generosity and compassion on yourself. Go ahead—get a manicure or massage. Enjoy!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You're one hell of a negotiator. You can't help but seek out the deals and haggle. You also hate the idea of losing. This is a conundrum. Remember that not everything is as it seems. If you have 100 oranges and your competitors need 100 oranges—that doesn't mean it's win-lose. Look for the win-win. Consider maybe you only need the juice and they need the pulp.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Your New Moon homework involves helping others find generosity of spirit. You have a magnanimous heart and a generous soul. But, you may find that working with others can be trying. They may require more help than you know. Instead remember everyone has a sacred journey and not all paths are clear. Use your warmth to light a fire and show compassion.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

You're living the life of your dreams. But, the sleeper must waken and live among the living. You can't expect to stay there. The Aborigines take a walk-about to discover their true path and search deep within their souls. This is a good path for everyone. At some point, you must make a journey. But, they eventually must join the world of today. Don't get stuck in dreamland.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

There's nothing worse than injustice. You know this. Your sign is all about balancing the scales. You know you must work towards the goal of justice. However, it often feels like there is only litigation and not justice. But, you know this isn't true. If you've used others unfairly and they're reacting—you may need to re-think your strategy. It has a way of biting you later on.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Patience is a virtue. You may feel the sting of anger and the despair of injustice. Don't lose faith. This New Moon consider practicing self-care. Be generous with yourself. You may not deserve what others are dishing out. You should still act with grace and dignity. Only you have the power over you. Your time will come. Remember the best revenge is success.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

Now is the time for action. You've thought and planned and begged. But, you're going nowhere fast. It's up to you to change your destiny and right past wrongs. The choices you've made are part of you, but they don't define your next moves. You can still do the right thing and be who you are. It's not over until you give up. You can do this!

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

You're heading on a path towards greatness. It's not over until the fat lady sings. Don't give into your fear and hate. Stand up on your own two feet and thank your maker for existence. You've got places to go and people to meet. Don't stop and look for the negative. Don't get bogged down in details. Remember life is for the living. Don't give up!

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You can do it! You may feel overwhelmed and burdened—anyone would. But, you must keep going. You can't stay put for long. This is your challenge and your destiny. If you back away now—you give up hope. You can't thank a fish, but you can keep on trying, If you're scared you'll only be more impressed with yourself when you're done.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

So, this is love? You don’t know what you want and you’re not even trying to find it. Stop giving others power over yourself in the end you can move on. You can even find love and health and happiness. But, you must do more than you’re currently doing. You can’t stand around and stare at the dead fish. You must take action for your purpose and live. GO!
