Is this the blahs or the blues? When you feel the blahs, you need to get out there and change up your routine! What's stopping you? There is a big wide world out there and it's just begging to be explored. Will you be the one to deny the call of the wild? Really? Madame G hopes not. In fact, she recommends that you get out there and take advantage of this summer sun. Cover up!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Feeling like you lost your way? Don't worry, you'll find it. You may just need to narrow down your options. So, if you don't know what you do want—it's a good idea to narrow down what you don't want. Hate customer service? Consider a job in IT and coding. Heck maybe you can apply 10 years of customer service experience to the user experience. Go you! Use your head.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

So, you're looking for the next big thing. Maybe it's discovering how your child's shoe has PB&J inside the toe. Do you have a culprit? Angry toddlers are terrifying, but a parent on the case is unstoppable. Don't just hang around looking for clues. You can solve this case on top of dinner, work problems, and running around with a toddler with one shoe. You're amazing!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

You're heading towards new heights of indecision. Luckily, this is a good time to check for glitches in the system. Narrow down the options and watch out for Deja-vu. You know you've seen this hot mess of a tragedy before. You know it doesn't really get any better. You may say you hate the drama—but if you don't stop making it—it won't go away. Look out!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

War! What is it a good for? Absolutely nothing! You may want to consider this phrase for the next few days. Though Madame G loves your spirit, you may want to avoid making enemies. In fact, you may catch more bees with honey than vinegar. So, you can destroy them? What's the purpose? Who will be left to worship your almightiness—if there's no one else around?

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

Your hanging onto their every word—and they can't get enough of you. But, when given great responsibility you must act very responsibly. Don't waste this time or let the power go to your head. Use your time and space wisely. Who knows giving back and helping others might just be what the doctored ordered. There's nothing like a community of happy healthy people.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Get a job! You may take all the time you need in life to discover the world around you. It's important to take time to re-think your life. But, there's a difference between creating a life and waiting for it to happen. You can't live in dream land forever. In fact, you may need to get a little more aggressive and grab life by the metaphorical balls. Take ownership before it's too late.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

Stop saying: "I'll be cool one day." Or whatever saying is holding you back. Stop waiting for tomorrow and take ownership for today. You only have so many allotted days and you're so lucky that you have the ones you do. It's a gift! Live it and use it wisely. You're entitled to make the most out of this crazy life like anyone else. Make this life, your life, extraordinary. LIVE!

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

It's okay to feel a little down, just don't give up. This isn't the end. It's time to regroup and re-think your options. Start planning, thinking, and learning. In fact, start gathering all the tools available to you. If you're heading away from a job start by making the best of it you can—do everything with enthusiasm and leave on a very high note. Give all you can. Be all you are!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You're out of options. Stop playing around and get serious. If you buckle down now—you'll save yourself the hassle in the end. It's never too late to do what you want, or to be who you admire. Give your kids a role model—be the person who you look up to. Now is the time for change and transformation. Your greatness is breaking through. Push through! You've got this.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Your heart is a lonely hunter. It's up to you to discover the world around you. Don't look at the world and ask what it will do for you. What have you done? It doesn't need to be grand or orchestrated. Sometimes, the best things are in our daily interactions. And if you find you've given too much—step back and give to yourself. Only you can fill the void with what's missing.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You're heading in the right direction towards your dreams. It's up to you to live the life you want. Don't despair. This is the road less traveled and it's covered in weeds. Only you know what this world is capable of and now you know your mettle too. This is a good thing. Don't stop here. Keep going and don't stop—you're almost there. GO!

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

So, this is the beginning. You’re definitely starting out on a new path. Where will it go? How will it end? Who knows! This is the world of today we can’t see the future—even for Madame G the road is not always clear. Seek those who are wiser than you and reach out towards your friends this is the time for learning, discovering, and seeking for we do not yet know the end.
