

The Full Moon lead to some interesting changes. Now, what will you do? You may discover it's time to change and transform. You may even say: chance it. You'll never know what will happen until it's over and you'll never know what stuff you're made of until you try. Madame G recommends you get out there and just do it! It's better to try and fail than not at all.

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You're heading out on a new adventure. Instead of a burden, imagine you're a pirate looking for treasure. You didn't commit to a 30-year mortgage—you set off in uncharted territories. You may have years of payments ahead of you, but that's life. You have to live somewhere. It might as well be in your dream home or better yet, the house and life you're satisfied with.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

You don't know where this is going and you're terrified. Control is a fickle friend. It gives the illusion of power when in fact, the facts suggest a different story. You control much less than you think. So, let go. You may not end up exactly where you thought you wanted, but you will end up where you need to be. Bloom where you are planted and let the breeze ease your fears.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

This is a tough road to tow. You may start to feel as if you're gathering dust and getting caught in the corner. Only you know if this is right for you. Don't stay at a job just because you're comfortable. Don't stay in one place because you're afraid of a little turbulence. The worst mistake you'll ever make is standing around waiting for something to happen.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

A rolling stone gathers no moss. You know this. This is not your problem. You're a worried about moving forward. You face the world with a brave face. You don't hesitate in your areas of expertise. But, you haven't pushed yourself in a while. Now, is the time to get out of your comfort zone. Reach for the moon and even if you miss you'll still be among the stars.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

What can be done is done. What will be done is done. You can't change the future or the past. You also can't change the minds of your friends or ramify. You must live according to your own values and be available when people need help. You can't force a horse to water if they're not ready. All you can really do is be there when they need you. In the meantime, enjoy your life!

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

So much to do and so little time. You're like the frantic white rabbit from Alice in Wonderland always looking at your watch. Always late. Always running behind. Are you really? Perhaps this sense of falling behind is all in your mind. You may not really be late or out of place. You may in fact be right where you need to be and doing exactly what you should be doing.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

If someone keeps trying to convince you, you're a terrible mess—maybe you are—and maybe you're not. Understand what you can change and what you can't. This doesn't make you bad. It just means this is you, with all your beautiful mess. In that case, stop the horrible blame and guilt. If it's you—how bad can it be. It's just you.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Burn the ships! You're holding onto the past. The loss of control is killing you. You may be missing out on the biggest victory of your life. You may be preventing yourself from living the dream. What a loss? If only you could let go of your internal beliefs about your lack you could move forward. Get rid of the obstacles and move forward. Victory or death, there is no try.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

What can you do? This is your life. You have choices. Sometimes you make the wrong ones. You may be bored at work, but it's not in your best interest to quit because of this. You should have a plan of action. There may come a time when you won't want to work so hard and talking your way out of trouble. Try giving yourself planning deadlines and move forward from there.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

That's just the way it is. Sometimes you win big and sometimes you don't. You can't blame others for the circumstances. They may not be any better than you at guessing. But, you know you're not the queen of the world. Instead of giving away all your power take the time to imagine where it will lead. People can't make us feel bad without our permission.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

In the end, this is all there is. There is no destiny outside of our own minds and bodies. You must commit to yourself and see beyond the normal realm. You can make a change if you chose to. You may also remain where you are. It doesn't matter if this is the right path or not, you can still head towards the light if you want. There are no guarantees.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Showing love and appreciation for others is wonderful. But, don't forget to do the same for yourself. Ease up on your own worries and get out of your head. Take a few moments to jot down what makes you happy and unhappy right now. Find a way to kick the negative out and bring in more of the positive. What does your best day look like? Do that!
