

Does it suddenly feel like you're on an episode of Arrested Development? Don't worry, you're not crazy. This is just life. Madame G recommends that you don't judge anyone. 'Adulthood' can be difficult, especially if you get stuck in the details of your family's eccentricities. Instead, liberate yourself. You're the master of your own universe. Be the hero you deserve. Be you!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You're an inspiration and a gentleman (or lady). It's important to remember that you're capable of more than you think. Talent is a double edged sword. It can help you get ahead, but it can lead you into complacency if you don't continue to challenge yourself. Don't fear failure. Instead fear what a failure to act would do. You're capable of greatness. Good luck!

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

What's in a name? You don't know everything, but you're getting close to thinking you do. In the end, it's probably not worth it. You can change the world and make it a better place simply by doing one small act of kindness a day. In the end, there are a finite amount of days available to us. We can appreciate them and live fully or ignore what's right in front of us. Choose wisely.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Well, that's all you can do from here. Stop looking outside of yourself for the answer to life's questions. You may hear that the answer is "42" but what is the question? Instead of living someone else's dream look within your own heart. You have all the answers. You even have all the right and proper questions. You just need to understand them for yourself. You can do it!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

What can you do? In the end, you really can't control someone else's life or their personality traits. You can only truly change and fix yourself. So, stop worrying about everybody else. Take care of yourself. Take time out to pursue the things that make you happy. Be a little selfish, when it comes to saying yes. You don't have to do every task that someone hands you. Be you!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

The road to discovery is fraught with challenging hurdles and life-altering decisions. What will you accomplish? Where will you end up? You have no real understanding of where you'll go from here. But, you know that you're heading out on one heck of an interesting journey. The best thing you can do is hang onto that bull with both hands. Ride em' cowboy! Ye-hah!

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Don't say no, out of spite. You may not want to do this thing. And if you really don't want to, then you shouldn't do it. However, if you're simply saying no in order to cut off your nose to spite your face, well think again. That's a horrible idea and you can't "not" do something out of spite. Just no! NOPE. You can say yes to something else but think about it.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

Hurdles pop up unexpectedly and you can't seem to shift the changes. Don't worry. You may need to pick up another strategy. Don't get so stuck on one idea that you continue to push it beyond any normal standing. In fact, if you want to win in the end you may need to practice the path of least resistance. Stop trying so hard, stop being pushy, and go with the flow. You're crazy!

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

If at first you don't succeed—don't give up! Not that you know how to stop trying anyway. Instead consider a new strategy. You've put in the time. Now you realize that you may need to rest and reflect. Once you've accomplished all that you need to, reach out and take on an entirely new challenge. You keep leveling up and outdoing yourself. You can do it!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You can't keep running and hiding. The world is not going to be your oyster forever. Eventually someone younger and more talented will usurp you. What will you do then? You can't expect others to wait around for you to get with the program. It's always fun to start a new project, but you do need to finish one of those projects for them to get off the ground. You'll succeed—just try.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

On the one hand, you can run at the problem with the force of a 10 ton truck. You may actually knock down the old buildings and disrupt a few things. This may or may not be a positive result. In the end, you may need to consider your approach. It's one thing to change your circumstances and another to change your interactions with others. Think about kindness in your daily life.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

In the end, you're only capable of what you dream of. If you imagine that something is possible you'll accomplish it. But, if you continue to believe that you'll never accomplish anything, you never will. Use your creativity to build the world that you've always wanted to live in. You don't need to negotiate or compromise with anyone. Just take care of yourself and the rest will come.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Helping a friend is the highest form of love. You can do so much more that you set out to accomplish when you realize that a man (or woman) is not an island. In order to succeed, you need a strong community of people who will support you on your road to greatness. This may mean finding people who support you. If you don't know them, be the one who will help others.
