

Welcome to another look at highlights arriving on 4K Ultra HD, Blu-ray and DVD. This is another relatively quiet edition, but there are a few notable releases arriving on disc. So, if you can't make it out to the movies this week or need to stay indoors, be sure to give one of these titles a try.

BIG NEW RELEASES

FAR HAVEN: In this western, a Civil War veteran returns to his hometown after serving time for fighting with superiors. He discovers that his father-in-law has been brutally attacked by a gang of criminals who are threatening the entire area. When the lead discovers that his children are also at risk, the protagonist decides that he must deliver justice.

This picture is a faith-based film that is a DVD-only release. It has played at a few festivals though, where response from its target audience was upbeat. Write-ups state that it has some violence and isn't for small kids, but also complimented the movie for corralling a strong cast and attempting to explore important issues like treatment of Native Americans.

The cast includes Bailey Chase, Amanda Righetti, Bruce Boxleitner, Nancy Stafford, Martin Kove, Chris Mulkey, Jeremy Gauna and Don Most.

Alan Ladd was the first to make the most of the classic Western. He was the first to make the Western a serious genre, and he was the first to make it a popular one. He was the first to make it a genre that could be taken seriously, and he was the first to make it a genre that could be taken seriously.

~~The Peacemaker is a 2024 American action film directed by James McTeigue, starring George Clooney, Nicole Kidman, and Jeff Bridges. The film is a sequel to the 2005 film 'The Omega Code' and is the first in a new franchise. It is set in a near-future world where a global conflict has broken out between the United States and Russia. The film follows a team of special forces operatives as they race to stop a nuclear warhead from being launched. The film is rated PG-13 for strong language, some smoking, and some violence. It is available on Blu-ray and DVD.~~
