

The moon is Void of Course on December 9 and Venus parallels Saturn. This is a time for staying on course and thinking through problems (even romantic ones) rationally. Madame G recommends you follow your head rather than your heart. First you must listen, learn, and collect information. Gather all the intel you can and take action. You'll do well, kid, you've got this!

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Are you heading towards a new adventure? Perhaps you're thinking about a new course of action. You've looked into classes and signed up for college or a certification course. You're nervous! This next phase in life will be challenging and fun. Happiness is possible, if you allow it. Take a chance on yourself. It may not always be easy, but it will definitely be worth it.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

You're ready for a change. It's hard to break a decade old pattern. The life you dreamed of or worked towards isn't what you imagined. You're drained, weary, and heartsore. Consider that this too is all part of the human experience. Would you appreciate an easy life? Change your perspective and appreciate what you have and watch your life change. It may shock you!

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Take time out of your day and ask: what do I really want? This is an important time for self-discovery. There is always something new to learn. You may discover (to your shock) that you love something or have a different opinion than when you were younger. People do change, it's just not always how we imagine it. And that's a very good thing. Dig deep!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

If you're soul searching, consider reading Victor Frankl's: Man's Search for Meaning. It's a heart wrenching work. However, it's hard to bitch about your office job, kids, or trivial complaints compared to a Holocaust victim's take on humanity. It's surprisingly refreshing. If you haven't read it—pick it up. If you have, re-read it. It's time for reevaluation. You can!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

You're ready to sit down and face some difficult challenges and perhaps a more difficult truth. You can't change those around, but you may influence them. Derek Siver's gives an excellent TED talk entitled: How to Start a Movement. It begins with a rebel willing to dance alone. But, it also requires a fool willing to dance alongside him/her. Do what you can. Maybe they'll listen.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Virgo (Aug. 23- Sept. 22)

You may experience a little discomfort over a loved one's confession. Listen and don't assume the worst. Consider that the people we love generally tell us what we need to hear not what we want to hear. This is for our benefit. If you're unwilling to listen, ask yourself: why? If you want growth and happiness you must take responsibility for your actions. Don't wait.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct.22)

What does your heart tell you? If you've spent too long looking through a narrowed view of so-called reason, you may want to reprioritize. It's better to understand where you stand and what you hope to accomplish. Accumulating money is fine. But, at what cost? You may have reached success without knowing it. Experience life fully. You'll only regret it if you don't. Live well!

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

If you had a near death experience, what are your final thoughts? Do you feel regret? Take a moment and gather your thoughts. Madame G suggests you take time for yourself this week and really focus on your next goal. You'll only regret the chances you didn't take. They've done studies on the dying and they don't regret staying late at the office. Live long and prosper!

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You can have joy anywhere. A recent study discovered that work, careers, and jobs don't provide meaning. Value comes when the employee ascribes meaning to the position. An ER doctor may feel overwhelmed by the chaos rather than taking pride in healing. While a janitor may take great pride in their work, at the same hospital, and consider her job part of healing. How about you?

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

What's next? If you've been planning for a change for a while (fretting really), but are not quite sure what to do: stop! Breathe. Take a moment to look around yourself. What's really important?

You may feel like holding old grudges are healthy—it's not. You'll only push those who love you away. Worse, you'll hurt yourself. In order to live, we must forgive (not forget). Smile!

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You're a hell on wheels. It's just a really quiet wheel. You may feel overwhelmed by what you see around you. It's worth noting: this too shall pass. If you focus on the problems, you'll only see more. It's great to pay attention to detail and practice excellence. But, if you only focus on the trees you'll miss the forest. You need both images in order to live well. It's not all or nothing.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Refocus on yourself. Perhaps a new job didn't take the shape you wanted. Maybe you've moved up stairs (literally) from the basement. Now, your part of the "in crowd," yet it lacks luster. You might be more introverted than you thought and the basement was a happy respite from people. Upstairs you really have to deal with everyone and look happy. Worry not! Aye remedio!
